93/100

MONICA LARNER

The Castello Romitorio 2022 Metafisica is a blend of Chardonnay (from Montalcino) and Trebbiano Toscano (from Maremma) that sees nine months in barrique. This is a beautifully textured white wine with layers of orchard fruit, yellow rose and baked apple pie with the crust. This vintage has a sweet side and a savory one that will stand up nicely to Moroccan chicken tagine with preserved lemon. Only 1,850 bottles were created.

MONICA LARNER

The Castello Romitorio 2021 Metafisica is equal parts Chardonnay and Procanico, aged in oak for nine months. This is a new addition to the estate portfolio, with the Chardonnay coming from Montalcino and the Procanico coming from the Scansano area in southern Tuscany. The Procanico vineyard boasts 50-year-old vines and is one of the oldest in the area. Filippo Chia and his family acquired the site in November 2020. It's especially hard to find a white wine of this texture and consistency. It opens to a light golden hue and a viscous appearance that translates to a creamy mouthfeel. Aromas include orchard fruit, baked pear, saffron and apple pie. You can taste the skins, and there is the slightest tannic imprint on the mid-weight finish, which is dry and laced with dusty minerality. Only 1,900 bottles were produced in this inaugural release.
