

Castello Romitorio Brunello di Montalcino 2017

Powerful and mature showing a centred, solid character with scents of black prunes, blackberries, wild myrtle leaves, salted caramel, green olives and incense. The white pepper and orange juice dominate the secondary scene and add to the complexity. Full bodied, fine grain soft tannins and a decidedly vibrant, savoury finale. Better from 2022.